Centre Quaker Congénies is located in the south of France in a lovely valley between the Cevennes Mountains and the Mediterranean Sea. It is the oldest Meeting house in continental Europe. Built nearly 200 years ago by French Quakers with support from Friends from America, the UK and Ireland. The Meeting House became an international Quaker Centre about 20 years ago and offers bed and breakfast, self-catering or camping stays for visitors from all over the world and hosts a range of events and retreats.

Bed and Breakfast or Self-Catering Accommodation

We are pleased to offer guests the option of bed and breakfast or self-catering accommodation. It is possible to book an individual room or hire the entire centre for an extended family and friends gathering.

We have five bedrooms available. On the first floor there are two double/ twin rooms with en-suite facilities, a family room accommodating up to four people and a single room with a shared shower room. On the ground floor there is a twin room with a wet room with grab rails suitable for guests with restricted mobility. We can supply a cot and highchair for our youngest guests.

We operate an enhanced cleaning process for our guests' safety and comfort regarding covid-19

There is large room on the ground floor equipped with a large family dining table and chairs as well as a comfortable lounge area with easy chairs, sofas, a selection of books, toys and games, screen and DVD player and a piano.

The Centre has a fitted kitchen with cooker, dishwasher, fridge freezer and washing machine that self-catering guests are welcome to use.

Outside there is a summer kitchen with sink, fridge, table and chairs

Camping

Centre Quaker is also able to welcome guests who wish to camp. We have shower and toilet facilities in the grounds and camping guests are welcome to use the summer kitchen.

Facilities

We have a large attractive garden with many sunny and shady spaces and comfortable garden furniture to relax in. We have a range of bicycles that guests are welcome to use as well as some outdoor toys for little ones. The Centre has its own private car park available to guests and WiFi

To see more of the garden and area through the seasons, why not follow us of Facebook?

Breakfast

We offer a continental breakfast each morning with bread fresh from the village bakery, jam (often homemade) a choice of teas, coffee or hot chocolate.

Meetings, Conferences and Events

Groups can rent the entire facility for conferences, retreats or special events. We can configure the large meeting room (8m x8m) as required for conferences, lectures, training events. We can also set out the meeting room and garden for quaker or family celebrations such as small weddings, anniversaries, celebrations in thanks of a life. If desired, we can assist in organising meals and/or local transportation and activities. Please contact us with your ideas, projects and requirements.
